Alerts

Instructors Creating and Viewin Alerts (outreach) in Nanook Navigato

Why issue an aleft

Alerts providestaff and faculty with the ability to draw attention to students or prompt a referral with another department using the platform are completed as necessaryear-round.

Who does the alert go to Alerts are sent to the specific staff or departments (see progress report goide more information).

Demonstration video on how to issue an alert

Issuing an Alerfrom Professor Home Page

- 1. Log into Nanook Navigator: https://uaf.campus.eab.com/
- 2. Change your role from Staff or Student to Professor by clicking on the dropdown next to "Staff Home" or "Student Home" athren selectProfessor.

 Check the box next to the studestudents' names and select "Issue Alert", from the Actions dropdown menu. *Can select multiple students on 3/30/20.

Alerts

InstructorsViewingAlerts & Cases

How do I view my issued alerts?

1. Issued alerts show on the Professor Home in the My Issued Alerts sec (bottom of professor home page) his allows instructors see alerts they have issue, including links to any associated Progress Report

- Instructorscan click the case and see a window that explains which all reasons opened the case, the status of each case, and the case outcor
 the case has been closed.
- 3. If the alert is linked to a Progress Report, the Instruvation able to click and open the progresseport to view details as well.
- 4. To access the student's profile, you can click on the student's name or the quick search in the top right of the Professor or Staff Home page.

How to view alerts on the studenn0683 8 202.2 re W n B.6 7

How to view alerts on the studentrofile, continued

Alert With an Open Case

Alerts section includes:

- x Alert Reasons All reasons associated with this alert.
- x Issued OnDate alert was issued.
- x Issued ByWho issued the alert.
- x Comments: Any comments originally entered when the alert was issued.
- x Issuing EvaluationIf the alert was issued through Parogress Report then additional information will be available here, cluding the course, if the student is at risk to fail the course, absences, current grade, and professor comments.

Progress Reportase: