

The Sun Star

University of Alaska Fairbanks

“All in the Timing” brings laughter and philosophy to the stage

David Ives’s “All in the Timing,” directed by Stephan Golux, is a beautifully abstracted intellectual playground.

“All in the Timing” consists of six one-act plays, each with its own insight to meaning. “All in the Timing” is playful, making use of wordplay and philosophical references that

A girl in blue read alone in a “De Stijl”