Master of Education in Secondary Education

Following the completion of the year-long UAF secondary post-baccalaureate licensure program, students can pursue an M.Ed. degree in secondary education.

This program is designed to expand the preparation and instructional practices of middle and secondary educators and education professionals. Fifteen graduate-level credits from the UAF Secondary Post-Baccalaureate Licensure program may be applied toward the M.Ed. in secondary education program. Courses are available through UAF by distance-delivery and on the Fairbanks campus. Master's degree requirements must be met within seven years of beginning the program.

Program Requirements

1. Complete the general university requirements.
2. Complete the M.Ed. degree requirements.
3. Complete the admission requirements for the graduate-level secondary post-baccalaureate licensure program.
4. Complete the following course requirements:

EDSC F402--Methods of Teaching in the Secondary School (3)

or one elective course approved by candidate's graduate committee--3 credits

EDSC F614--Learning, Development and Special Needs Instructions--3 credits (3)

or EDSE F622--Curriculum and Strategies II: High Incidence--3 credits

8. Minimum credits required--31 credits

D. ESTIMATED IMPACT

WHAT IMPACT, IF ANY, WILL THIS HAVE ON BUDGET, FACILITIES/SPACE, FACULTY, ETC.

Changes listed in this document are mostly editorial (course titles, removing the choice of courses no longer offered, adding the choice of a SPED course to the secondary program) and will not have an impact on budget, space or faculty.

Addition of EDSE 622 as an option for secondary students may shift students out of EDSC 614 into EDSE 622. Both classes will be offered per existing course schedules.

Change to the ED 601 – 603 or 604 course sequence will have minor impact on budget, space and faculty. The courses are currently a part of existing faculty workloads and are offered on a regular basis on campus and by distance delivery. Student numbers will not likely increase overall due to this change, but the distribution of students in ED 603 – ED 604 may change.

E. IMPACTS ON PROGRAMS/DEPTS:

What programs/departments will be affected by this proposed action?

Include information on the Programs/Departments contacted (e.g., email, memo)

ED 601 – ED 603 or ED 604 course sequence: affected programs: Master of Education program, MA in Cross Cultural Studies, Ph.D. in Indigenous Studies.

The change was discussed at a committee meeting with SOE graduate faculty members who teach the core courses ED 601, ED 603 and ED 604. (Minutes attached). The proposed change was reviewed and approved by the Cross Cultural Studies/Indigenous Studies Department Head. (Email attached)

The M. Ed. in Secondary Education program and the School of Education graduate program in general will be impacted by this change.

This is a positive change for students in the M. Ed. in Secondary Education program as it allows them to complete the program in a more timely and cost efficient manner. It is positive for the School of Education, as graduation rates will increase. Students in the Secondary Licensure toward M. Ed. degree are currently required to complete 46 credits (31 in the licensure program, plus 15 more to complete the M. Ed.) This change will bring the degree to 40 or 43 credits (31 in the licensure program, plus 9 or 12 more to complete the M. Ed. depending the student's choice of completion options).

This change also benefits the program in terms of recruitment of new students. Potential students compare credit totals with other programs across the state and nation. The UAF program requires more credits to complete the M. Ed. than the other UA campuses require for their education licensure/graduate degrees. UAS offers a 36 credit MAT. UAA offers a 30 credit MAT.

One potential negative impact is that students in the secondary program may take 2 fewer elective courses in their degree program. This may impact enrollment in graduate education courses traditionally taken by these students.

F. IF MAJOR CHANGE - ASSESSMENT OF THE PROGRAM:

Description of the student learning outcomes assessment process.)

Students in the M. Ed. program are assessed using the School of Education NCATE assessment plan.

JUSTIFICATION FOR ACTION REQUESTED

The purpose of the department and campus-wide curriculum committees is to scrutinize program/degree change applications
