II New Business

A. Motion to Amend Staff Council December Meeting

The Staff Council President attends the Board of Regents, which is scheduled in Anchorage the same day as the December 7 Staff Council meeting. Want to keep December face-to-face meeting on a Friday because it is more convenient for rural members to travel on the weekend. After a brief discussion the motion was passed with unanimous approval.

The UAF Staff Council moves to establish an ad hoc committee on staff training for new employees and the following people have volunteered to serve on the committee:

1. Debra Hagen
2. Sue Sharpton
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

EFFECTIVE: Immediately

RATIONALE: Research new employee training procedures in departments throughout UAF and to come up with suggestions for standardization of training.

D. Motion to Endorse Staff Alliance Motion 2% Grid Increase

Kurt Carlson has concerns that this increase isn't quite enough. Questions whether there is enough backup for it to pass at legislature. Debra Hagen questions if President McCrea, when going before President Hamilton, takes information regarding faculty increases. President McCrea feels that there is awareness of the problem, but are not sure how to fix issue. He adds that the whole compensation structure needs to be reviewed. Joyce Allen-Luopa asks if there will be another increase im0VmmacG there will McCre8(7MC 41(fi
